INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Thomas Fortner being first duly sworn, deposes and says: My name is Thomas Fortner. I live at 57 Breayun Ave., Atlanta, Ga. I am the husband of Melinda Fortner. I am 57 years old. I have known my wife for over 40 years. I have known her father and mother ever since I can remember. My wife claims her Indian through her father and his father. Her father died in 1861 and was about 22 years old. Her grandfather, Cooper Prince, was born and raised in Cherokee Co., N. C. I know they have Indian blood because they claimed to be Cherokee blood, and I heard Cooper Prince say that he was Cherokee blood. Cooper Prince's father was name Hickajohn Prince. Cooper Prince was allowed to stay there because he was under Thomas' control. He was in control of the Cherokees in N. C. I never have heard of my wife's ancestors receiving any money or land from the Government on account of their Indian blood. I don't know how many children Hickajohn Prince had. My wife's father and grandfather never went by any other name than Prince. Cooper Prince owned several farms in Cherokee Co. N. C. That was about the time of the war. Cooper Prince died about the second year of the war. ~~Cooper Prince owned any~~ ~~land when the Indians were sent away from here or not.~~ ~~My wife has a brother named M. Texanna Murphy being first duly sworn deposes and says:

My name is Texanna Murphy, and I live in Cleburn, Tex. I am 45 years old. I claim my Cherokee Indian descent through my father, James B. Woody. My father was born in Mo. but I do not know just where. He was about 50 years old at the time of his death 10 years ago. I often heard my father talk of his Indian blood. He always told us that my great grandmother, Jane Perkins, was a full blood Cherokee Indian. My father was recognized as a white man in the community in which he lived. My father got his Indian blood through his mother, Sallie Good. (This is her opinion on her memory being refreshed by her husband). Jane Perkins was the maiden name of my great grandmother. I do not know anything about my grandmother nor my great grandmother.

My name is Osborne Love, and I live at Riley, Tex. I am 63 years old. I know Texanna Murphy, I am no relations of hers, and I have no interest in any claim she may have against the Government. I think Texanna Murphy has Cherokee Indian blood. She got this blood through her father, Berry Woody. I never heard Berry Woody in his lifetime say anything about this Indian blood. But I did hear his father, and mother say that she(his mother) was an Indian. I do not know the names of these two old people. They lived at the time I heard them talk in Tex. They were well on to 60 at the time I knew them when I was a boy. I don't know for sure where they came from nor when they died. I never heard them say anything about getting any money from the Government on account of their Indian blood.

Hon. Guion Miller

Washington D.C.

Dear Sir, I am in receipt of your second reply, in regard to my communications in regard to the Cherokee claims of the J.B. Woody heirs of Kleburg, Dallas Co. Texas.
The claim was sent in by Mr. J.D. Murphy in last year, giving the names of the family.
So his wife Mrs. Texaner Murphy was ordered to appear at Dallas Texas, by the court for examination in Aug. 1908.
by a commissioner of the Cherokee fund to ascertain the justice of the claim, which she did, stating the claim was OK and put on file. So you will find the claim filed in Mrs. Texaner Murphy's name daughter of J.B.
Woody deceased.
Now what I have been trying to find out is

First,
this, do the names of her brother and sister appear in her regular application. Now, if James County Wood, Mrs. Ollie Rutledge Smith, and Mrs. Lucette Muender. They sent in their notices to you asking for their share in the share fund
but have received no reply from you yet.
Hence their request for information, as they do not want to lose their right.
Second are their children entitled to a share?
Third, have you expected to make a report and settle the claims?
Fourth, how much did the fund amount to when it was cut out in 1904, I think the fund ought to draw interest as the expense is paid out of it, and a great many of us are paying taxes. Hoping for a more favorable answer,
I remain your very truly, J. Muender

Special Commissioner Court of Claims
Eastern Cherokee Enrollment. 601 Quay Building

Dear Sir

In reply to yours of May 22
Relative to Application No. 38559 for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, will state Barbara Julian resided with Cherokee tribe in North Carolina and was recognized as Cherokee Indian and was moved with them to Tennessee. I don't know the date. And when the Cherokee Indians were moved to Indian Territory she stopped at Springfield Mo. on account of sickness and was married to — Murray who had Indian blood of a different tribe. They were still recognized as Indians.
The reason Barbara Julian was not enrolled in 1851
she was not living with the Cherokee Tribe in Indian Territory but was living in Missouri.

Milinda Murray (my grandmother) daughter of Barbara Julian. married George Leeper (white) and married second time Joseph Mason (white). Milinda Murray was not enrolled in 1851 for the same reason as Barbara Julian.
Both resided at or near Springfield Missouri in 1834-35. Frank Mason (my father) son of Milinda Murray and Joseph Mason was born in 1834.
Recognized as white. Milinda ^{Murray} recognized as Indian until after marriage. were not slaves.

Very Respectfully Yours

Inez Mason McKelvey

Why was the parent through whom you claim not enrolled in 1851, and where was he or she residing in 1834-35, if living at that time? Where were your grandparents on the side through which you claim residing in 1834-35?

If your parents or grandparents were slaves, state whether slaves of Indians or white people.

Madam:-

This office is in receipt of a letter from C. N. King, of Springplace, Georgia, inclosing two supplemental applications for your minor children, Maggie and Sallie.

You are advised that as you have no original application on file in this office these supplemental applications will not be sufficient, and you should fill out the inclosed application blank in behalf of your minor children, and sign the same as guardian.

You should state fully your husband's connection with the Eastern Cherokees, as it appears the children claim their Indian descent through him.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

George Milton, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is George Milton. I am 62 years old. I live in Lenapah. Have lived in Sequoyah District previous to coming here. I was enrolled by the Five Civilized Tribes as a Cherokee Freedman, No. 2432. I was enrolled in 1880 by Hixon. I got money at that time. I was a slave. Got my freedom after the war, and was owned by George Lowery. I claim through my mother Judy Lowery. She was George Lowery's sister's daughter. I was born before the war. My mother was about half and her mother was a full-blood Cherokee. I cannot remember her mother and father's names. I had a witness but she is sick and cannot come. I do not know whether my mother was ever enrolled. I never heard her say anything about getting any money from the Government. My brother is Nathan Ross, and Thomas Lowery.
